Police Graft Trial Opens; Two Jurors Are Selected

NEDDERMAN IS ON TRIAL IN OPENING BRIBE CASE

Protection Coin Alleged Paid to Police Chief for Gaming Privileges is Subject of the First Charge to Be Heard

TWO JURORS PICKED IN OPENING SESSION

Chinese Witnesses to Figure in Prosecution, According to Indications in Examination of First Veniremen Called

Two of the twelve jurors who will determine whether former Chief of Police John H. Nedderman accepted a bribe to protect Oakland gamblers were selected in a two-hour session in Judge James G. Quinn's court this morning. But three of the first panel of fifty persons were examined and only one of the three dismissed. The two who are now in the jury box are:

E. W. Rivers, retired railroad conductor, 1029 Filbert street.

William J. Abernathy, retired grocer, 311 Thirty-fifth street.

The question of the admissibility of Chinese witnesses, who are expected to take the stand during the progress of the trial, was one of the most questions of the examination of veniremen. It was the stippling of Chinese witnesses, first of the panel to be questioned, and that resulted in his being challenged for cause by the State and dismissed by the court. Rosenberg, first of the panel to be questioned, was dismissed because he would not take a man's word before he would that of a Chinese.

COMBINATION TO HARM POLICE CHIEF IS HINTED

Several names were added to the known cast of characters of the trial by District Attorney Ezra W. Decoto in his questions to the veniremen, as by Deputy District Attorney Theodore P. Witschen, who assisted him. Attorney Peter J. Crosby, of counsel for the defense was diligent in seeking to learn if various news articles had influenced the veniremen to fixed opinions. A possible line of defense was suggested in his question as to how the jurors would vote if it were shown that the combination existed in the prosecution of his duties as police chief, to harm him in his public or private life.

District Attorney Decoto chose to bring the defendant to trial on indictment No. 1130, which charges him with receiving a bribe of $250 from the Bartenders' Club in return for not molesting gambling operations of that organization. Twelve indictments have been returned against Nedderman, but No. 7130 particularly specializes on a payment of $250 said to have been made May 15, 1918.

CO-COURTROOM CROWDED WHEN CASE IS OPENED.

Judge Quinn's courtroom was crowded to the doors. In the back of the room a number of persons were standing. The fifty members of the panel, with the exception of one who had been excused, including Fred Emerson Brooks, the poet, filled the panel seats within enclosure. Nedderman and Crosby occupied seats at a central table, where they were several times in conference, and with them was M. J. Bleuel, a clerk in Crosby's office. At the end of the table facing the court were District Attorney Decoto and Deputy District Attorney Witschen, who were attended also by Albert C. Agnew of the district attorney's staff. Colonel Theodore P. Witschen, police corporal, was also present. The trial was a very interesting one.

FIVE WOMEN IN FIRST VENIREMEN CALLED.

As the clerk of the court drew the names from his revolving black box the following were first called for the jury: Charles N. Rosenberg, E. W. Rivers, William J. Abernathy, A. P. Berthelsen, L. F. J. Sheldon, S. K. Rogers, Fannie W. Smith, George W. Ross, Clara Barker, A. Jacobs, Imogene Donaney and Mary R. Lewis. Five of the twelve were women.

PHONE STRIKERS IN BATTLE WITH COMPANY GUARDS

Guards about the Tennessee exchange of the Pacific Telephone Company in North Oakland were beaten early this morning in a fight with strike sympathizers that ended with the arrival of a detachment of men from the Northern police station. According to the while night shift operators of the place were leaving in taxis, and the telephone company employees sought to move the strikers and sympathizers from the sidewalk in front of the company's door. After hot words passed, one of the guards says a bystander struck him and a fight resulted. With the arrival of the police the crowd dispersed. There were no arrests.

Hope for settlement of the telephone workers' strike was bright today with the tentative arrangement of a conference between a committee from the employees and D. P. Fullerton, general superintendent of the telephone company.

An unexpected move by the telephone company has brought to a halt the tentative arrangement of a conference between a committee from the employees and D. P. Fullerton, general superintendent of the telephone company. It is reported that the telephone officials are willing to grant the demands of the union, even to the retroactive increase in wage scale to January 1, providing that "closed shop" clause is added throwing on the unions responsibility in preventing future strikes.

Two other meetings are scheduled for today. A women's mass meeting has been called for Carpenters' Hall, San Francisco. Eleven women socially prominent have been named as sponsors. Oakland strikers will meet this afternoon in the Pacific building and hope to hear at that time the decision of the telephone officials which will end the strike.

Two Sunday church congregations yesterday heard discussed the telephone strike. Rev. George W. Phillips of the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church, Oakland, said the industrial situation is leading to ruin. J. F. Morgenthaler, union officer, spoke from the pulpit of the First Baptist church, Berkeley, on "The Church and its Relation to the Present Strike."

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—Telephone operators and electrical workers of California and Nevada, members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who are on a strike, sent a telegram to United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson today, asking if the United States is paying the expenses of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company in the strike.

City Orders Suit to End Phone Strike Complaint Will Be Filed This Week

Instructions to City Attorney H. L. Hagan to bring suit against the telephone company to restore service by bringing about a settlement of the present strike were voted unanimously by the city council today. Hagan is now working on the preliminary papers, the instruction being to bring the suit at the earliest possible moment.

The order for the suit followed granting by the council of the Municipal Auditorium to the striking telephone girls for a benefit dance Saturday night, planned to raise money for their strike fight.

"We are paying the same rate for telephone service that we did before the strike," said Commissioner W. H. Edwards. "And we are getting no service. We should do something to help these girls, and we should also see that we are protected from paying high rates with no service."

"That's right," said Mayor John L. Davis. "We can hardly get a number nowadays out of the city hall. We shouldn't stand for it."

"As long as the strike lasts we'll have to put up with such service," said Commissioner F. F. Morse.

Edwards then moved that the city attorney be instructed to file suit to compel service to be rendered by bringing the strike to an end.

Hagan said that he would be ready to file the suit before the end of the week.

GERMAN FLEET IN HUN PORTS ARE SCUTTLED

Warships Not Surrendered to Allies Anchored Off Kiel and Wilhelmshaven Sink at Time of Big Scapa Coup

Britons Accused of Careless Conduct in Permitting the Enemy Crews to Remain on Surrendered Warcraft

WEIMAR, Sunday, June 23.—(By the Associated Press).—The German warships which were not surrendered to the allies and which have been anchored off Kiel, Wilhelmshaven and other ports have been sunk by German sailors manning them according to a report received here from a reliable authority.

According to the reports there were twelve German war vessels, besides destroyers which were in German waters, not having been turned over to the entente under the armistice provisions.

KIRKVALE, June 23.—Germany's interned battle fleet was sunk as a result of orders from Berlin, according to British naval officers here who have made an investigation of the British authorities, brought the orders from the German capital which resulted in the sinking of the vessels Saturday.

The British grand fleet today takes at Weimar the submerged bulk of the German fleet. A few funnels show above the water in some places.

There was a fitting end for the "scuttled" fleet, one British officer remarked today.

BRITISH ADMIRALTY CRITICIZED FRENCH.

PARIS, June 23.—The British admiralty was openly charged with neglect in permitting the sinking of the German fleet off Scapa Flow by French newspapers today.

The French papers recalled the fact that France had laid claim to the battle cruisers and light cruisers forming part of the interned German fleet, and declared that compensation is due France for their loss.

"Great Britain's responsibility is heavy," declared the Journal. "The British admiralty wanted the fleet sunk. An unbelievable accumulation of mistakes made the scuttling possible. Article 23 of the armistice did not preclude the presence of an allied guard aboard these ships."

"The allies doubtless will recognize that compensation is due to France," said the Petit Journal. "France must retain the submarine forces entrusted to her keeping and should receive no blame if she retains a number of merchant ships."

GERMAN COMMANDER ISSUED THE ORDERS.

LONDON, June 23.—Although reports have stated that six Germans were killed and ten wounded when the boats of the German fleet "in Scapa Flow were fired upon, subsequent to the scuttling of the German fleet, the Daily Mail says that others have been drowned and that some possibly have reached the Orkney Islands.

The main force of the British fleet was absent exercising at sea when the German ships were sunk.

Admiral von Reuter, commander of the surrendered German fleet, says he issued an order to sink the ships, the Daily Mail adds, and did so because at the beginning of the war the German emperor directed that no German warship should fall into the enemy's hands. He says that he believed from newspaper reports that the armistice had been ended.

PARIS, June 23.—There appeared today to be some indications that in case Germany decided to accept the peace treaty unconditionally, the action would be accompanied by the adoption in the national assembly at Weimar of a resolution or declaration that the signing was under compulsion, and that the German people did not feel morally responsible for the war and were willing to submit the question of responsibility to a tribunal consisting of two members representing the allied and associated powers, two neutrals and one German.

Government at Weimar Notifies French Officials That All Conditions Will Be Accepted; Italy Authorizes Its Delegates to Approve Pact

ECONOMIC BLOCKADE TO BE LIFTED

(By United Press.)
PARIS, June 23.—The economic council decided today that with the signing of peace all blockades will be raised, including that of Russia.

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, June 23.—The German government at Weimar has formally communicated its willingness to sign the peace terms unconditionally, it was announced by the French foreign office this afternoon.

The day and hour for the formal signing of the treaty is uncertain. The signing possibly may take place Tuesday, but more likely Wednesday.

The Italian delegates at present in Paris have been authorized to sign the treaty on behalf of Italy. This announcement removed one question which it was feared might delay the signing.

The German note of acceptance, it is said, is couched in such language that it maintains the German position that the peace conditions "are a peace of violence."

Germany today requested an additional forty-eight hours within which to make known its decision relative to the signing of the peace treaty without the reservations refused by the entente. The council of four flatly refused the request.

The request for additional time pleaded that the change in the government and the generally disturbed conditions made it difficult to complete the arrangements.

The communications from the Germans were received at 3 o'clock this morning. At 9 o'clock President Wilson and Premier Clemenceau, with Premier Lloyd George, met at the latter's house for consideration of the note. The character of this communication was not disclosed, however, until some time later in the morning when announcement had been made that the German request had been refused.

The decision to refuse the request was reached after a discussion lasting less than an hour.

REQUEST FOR 48 HOURS MORE IS DENIED

The German note reads: "To His Excellency, the President of the Peace Conference, Mr. Clemenceau:

"Mr. President, the minister for foreign affairs instructs me to beg the allied and associated governments to prolong for 48 hours the time limit for answering your excellency's note communicated yesterday evening, and likewise the time limit for answering the note of June 16, 1919, great difficulties, that a new cabinet was formed which, unlike its predecessor, could come to agreement to declare its willingness to sign this treaty as regards nearly all its provisions. The National Assembly has expressed its confidence in this cabinet by a large majority of votes. The answer only arrived here just before midnight, as the direct wire from Weimar was out of order. The government must come into contact anew with the National Assembly in order to take the grievous decision which is still required of it in such a manner as it can only be taken in accordance with democratic principles and with the internal situation in Germany."

"Accept, Mr. President, the assurance of my distinguished consideration. "VON HANKLE."

ALLIES REFUSE TO GRANT MORE TIME

The following reply was sent after its approval by the council of the allied and associated powers:

"Mr. President: The allied and associated governments beg to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of June 23. After its full consideration of your request they regret that it is not possible to extend the time already granted to your excellency to make known your decision relative to the signature of the treaty without any reservation."

"CLEMENCEAU."

LONDON, June 23.—It is officially announced that Germany will sign the peace treaty.

The Exchange Telegraph announced that the German reply reached Paris at 5:30 this afternoon, and that it was understood that Germany accepted the peace treaty, though the reply had not at that time been translated.

Law has been asked by Premier Lloyd-George to leave at once for Paris to sign the peace treaty. Reuters' News Agency announced this afternoon that it had been taken as official.

STORM BELT'S DEATH TOLL 75 TO 400

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 23.—The tornado which swept through a portion of Minnesota last night and practically destroyed the business section and a large part of the residential section of Fergus Falls, resulted in a total death toll estimated at from 75 to 400. Millions of dollars' worth of damage is reported, more than 500 houses being destroyed in Fergus Falls alone.

100 REPORTED KILLED.

ALEXANDRIA, Minn., June 23.—Fully 100 persons were killed and scores of buildings wrecked by a tornado which struck Fergus Falls, Minn., last night, according to word received here. Unverified telephone reports to private parties placed the death toll much higher. The storm struck the west part of Fergus Falls, Barnesville and Carletonville also. Some damage also was done at Brainerd. The storm cut a path more than thirty miles long, reports said. The storm swept northwest from Fergus Falls and the fall of buildings and crashed telephone lines to the ground as far as Brainerd, 80 miles away. Heavy rain drenched all of Minnesota and eastern North Dakota during the night. Bridges were washed out in many places. Wendell, Minn., 25 miles from Fergus Falls, said reports there, declared forty persons were killed in the district of the Grand Central Hotel. A. Larsen, who drove a motorcycle through the rain to ask aid, said he helped take ten bodies from the wreckage. Two persons were killed when the storm wrecked the Northern Pacific depot at Fergus Falls. Superintendent of Transportation H. P. McCauley said he received a report that two hundred were killed. He said it was possible there were many casualties through the country northwest of the town not yet reported.

$25,500 is Paid for Property in Vallejo

VALLEJO, June 23.—A real estate deal was consummated Saturday whereby Messrs. William Hauth and Dr. W. S. Thompson, owners of the Acme lot at the northeast corner of Georgia and Marin streets, secured the 25-foot frontage in Georgia street adjoining their holdings, from the Hobbs estate. The purchase price for the 25 feet was $25,500, or over $1000 a front foot. The deal was handled by D. J. Brogan of the Vallejo Commercial National Bank, and Dan is busy receiving the congratulations of his friends. It is stated that the new owners intend to improve their holdings at Georgia and Marin streets during the next year or so and it will likely be the nature of a modern apartment house with stores on the lower floor.

he earned the admiration of the French people not only by his brilliant as a diplomat and statesman with such distinguished company as the Marquis de La Fayette, but as well for his discoveries in the realm of science. Not the least of these was the principle of a double lens by fitting together in a frame two glasses of different powers, the upper lens adapted for distance and the lower one for reading.

Franklin's "split bifocals," although crude in construction, embodied the same fundamental principle as the Kryptok lens today. Though giving perfect vision for close or distant range, Kryptok have no line or seam to show that they are double lenses.

LABOR BACKING MEXICAN BANDITS FOR WIRE STRIKE SLAUGHTER PEONS

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 23.—Endorsement of the Commercial Telegraphers' strike was unanimously voted today by the American Federation of Labor. The convention also voted on record in favor of a forty-four hour week for labor generally and directed the executive council to work for that end. A resolution adopted on the subject of the wire strike directed the appointment by President Gompers of a committee to go to Washington to confer with Postmaster-General Johnson and ask that concessions recently granted telephone and electric workers be extended to include employees of the telegraph companies under government control. Such extension, it was declared, would result in the ending of the strike.

SILENT ON PROHIBITION

The convention turned down a resolution introduced by delegates from Seattle which would have put the American Federation of Labor on record as being in favor of prohibition. A memorial was adopted urging labor unions to meet with and encourage former soldiers, sailors and marines to protect themselves against exploitation by unprincipled employers.

men, but the morning's questioning reached none of them. The examination of Rosenberg proved the chief item of interest during the morning, exactly one hour and five minutes of which had been consumed before the court finally dismissed him. In the first place it was shown that Rosenberg, though now retired, formerly ran a cigar store in this city in the back room of which he had tables used for card games. Furthermore, his own admission was to the effect that he was at that time the local agent of the Mexican and Grand Lottery Company. Later he told Crosby he had retired from this establishment 11 years ago.

DECOTO INSISTS ON QUESTION OF PREJUDICE

The district attorney found even that remote connection with card games and lotteries a sufficient basis upon which to question the venireman at some length. He addressed question after question to Rosenberg of this sort: "Are you not, because of this former occupation, in a frame of mind that would lead you, perhaps unconsciously, to favor men who were engaged in gambling or in the conduct of lotteries?" Rosenberg, while not hedging in his declaration that he was not prejudiced on general principles to men of such occupation, still stoutly maintained that he was "there to do his duty." It was not sufficient for Decoto, who varied the form of his question and shot it back at Rosenberg several times in new garb, that Rosenberg said he was not prejudiced, because of your previous occupation and associates, a slight prejudice against cases of this kind?

ROSENBERG BELIEVED HE COULD, ON THIS SCORE, CAUSE A FAIR TRIAL

Attorney Decoto came back with the question framed in this fashion: "Would you not, having engaged in such business, be a trifle more favorably disposed toward the defendant than toward the people of the state?" "I am here to do my duty," Rosenberg declared.

SUGGESTION OF WHO MAY TESTIFY IN CASE

This series of question was punctuated with the more usual calling of the list of persons who would appear in the case to determine what, toward each, would be the prospective juror's attitude. Rosenberg was acquainted with several of the men who were on the list, but apparently with none of them to any extent. This list of names included the following: Nederman, Cockrell, O'Neill, Louis Schaeffer, Joseph A. Lloyd, C. F. Penner, Henry Wiekling, Fred S. Osgood, Mrs. W. K. Nottingham, Commissioner F. E. Jackson and his associates, Charles and George Jackson; Policemen Charles Nightingale, Steve Connolly, Philip M. Carey, F. G. Ostrander, Thomas Bradley, George J. Emery, Charles Lynd, George Sawyer and others. Several of these had gone on former Chief Nederman's bond.

ROSENBERG'S ACQUAINTANCESHIP LIST EXTENDED

When the district attorney arrived finally at the question of Chinese testimony, and Rosenberg at once evinced a distaste for the kind of testimony which, as compared with the evidence white men would give.

CHINESE VS. WHITE IN VERACITY ISSUE

"It is a question to a certain extent," demanded Decoto, "and another witness, a white man, testified that his evidence was false, would you be more inclined to take the testimony of a white man or a Chinese?" "I would be governed by the manner of their testifying and other considerations," Rosenberg replied.

DEFENSE HAS A FEW NAMES TO SUGGEST

The district attorney promptly challenged him for cause and passed several names to Rosenberg's possible acquaintance list, but found that the latter knew none of them. This list included the following: Captain of Detectives Walter J. Peterson, Captain Charles H. Beck, Jack Woolley, Hermann Loez of the Bartenders' Club, Fred Brad of the same, Sam Kee, Ernest Lum, (Little Ernest), Joe M. Detective George Helms, Deputy District Attorney Wade Snook, A. A. Rogers, O. D. Hamlin Jr., John U. Calkins, Frances Wilson, A. C. Agnew and Fred H. Donald, William J. Hennessy, Leo Owen and others.

SOME ARGUMENT BETWEEN THE OPPOSING COUNSEL AROSE OVER CROSBY'S PRODUCTION OF NEWSPAPER ARTICLES REGARDING VARIOUS PHASES OF THE GRAFT CASE

The argument between the opposing counsel arose over Crosby's production of newspaper articles regarding various phases of the graft case in connection with preliminary matters and his questioning of the talesman as to whether or not he had read these. It was contended by Deputy District Attorney Wittschen that Crosby was exceeding his rights in producing this matter, but he was overruled by Judge Quinn. The court held that the defense counsel was within his rights in attempting to show whether these articles had created a permanent state of mind in the prospective juror and that he might read the articles as a preliminary to asking whether they had that effect.

NOT INFLUENCED BY NEWS-PAPEL ARTICLES

The argument came up also in the examination of subsequent veniremen. In no instance did any of the three men examined admit that the articles had influenced his belief, and in most cases they had not read the particular article quoted. Thereafter Crosby brought out the matter of a conspiracy against the former chief, an intimation which

ALLY TERMS ARE ACCEPTED BY GERMANS

clusive evidence that Germany accepts the treaty.

PARIS, June 23.—A Geneva dispatch to the Journal des Debats this afternoon stated the German assembly had invited Secretary Van Haniel to sign the peace treaty at once and had conferred full powers upon him.

By JOHN EDWIN NEVIN
Correspondent International News Service.

PARIS, June 23, 11:20 a. m.—In anticipation of official word of Germany's decision to sign before the expiration of the allied ultimatum tonight, arrangements were going forward for the signing ceremony.

The German decision will be telegraphed here from Weimar and handed to the allies by the secretary of the German peace delegation, who remained at Versailles.

President Wilson and other big four leaders are hoping that a new German delegation could reach Versailles in time to sign tomorrow, but it appears more likely that the signatures will be attached on Wednesday or Thursday.

Despite this feeling of absolute confidence that the Germans will sign, Marshal Foch's preparations for the advance into Germany did not relax today, and American military headquarters were alive with activity.

RUSSIAN REDS RAISING ARMY BY NEW DRAFT

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Orders for "mobilization without exception" by Bolshevik forces have been issued by Trotsky, according to Helsinki Press Central, reaching the state department this afternoon. Even the employees of the communistic bureau of the government are included, the dispatch adds.

In the recent action at Krasnoia, it was stated, the town changed hands three times, finally being taken by the Bolsheviks, along with 600 prisoners, 700 horses and 300 machine guns.

Bolshevik papers are publishing reports that a soviet republic has been set up in Bessarabia.

Unofficially, the state department says also that the action on June 13 between the British and Bolshevik fleets operating out of Kronstadt, the Russian cruiser Oleg was sunk.

TO LEAVE WEDNESDAY.
The last battalion of the 310th engineers will leave Arch. Wednesday, the American command there this afternoon cabled the state department.

CLASH WITH BOLSHEVIKS.
VLADIVOSTOK, June 23.—Walter Kellerman of Chicago was killed and C. H. Bachelor of Kansas City and Chester Burt of Antigo, Wis., were captured in a fight between twenty-five soldiers and 200 Bolsheviks June 12, 100 miles to the west of Vladivostok.

Burt later was released, having been given a note saying that Bachelor would be released only upon the release of all Bolshevik prisoners. Burt said Bachelor was being well treated.

In another fight at Uspunka village, June 11, four Americans were wounded and one Bolshevik was killed and two were wounded and four made prisoner.

RUSSIAN SHIP BLOWN UP.
HELSINKI, June 23.—The British armored cruiser Slava, which sank immediately.

Protocol Will Answer Claims War Details Covered in Treaty

PARIS, June 23. (By the Associated Press).—A protocol to be added to the peace treaty, explanatory of the six points raised by the Germans, reads:

Firstly.—A commission will be named by the allied and associated governments to supervise the demolition of the fortifications of Heligoland in conformity with the treaty. This commission will be empowered to decide what part of the construction should be preserved, and what part demolished.

Secondly.—The sums which Germany will have to refund to its citizens to indemnify them for interests they may be found to have in the railroads and mines, referred to in paragraph 2, article 156, shall be placed to the credit of Germany on account of the sums due for reparation.

Thirdly.—The protocol refers to German private interests in railroads and mines in Shanghai as distinct from German state interests.

Fourthly.—A list of the persons whose names are on the list of paragraph two, Germany must surrender to the powers, will be sent to the German government during the month following the putting into force of the treaty.

Fifthly.—From the signature of peace and in the four months following, Germany will have an opportunity of presenting for the examination of the powers, documents and propositions with a view to hastening the work relating to reparations, thus shortening the investigation and hastening decisions.

Sixthly.—Prosecutions will be excluded against those committing criminal acts in connection with the liquidation of German property, and the powers will receive any information and proof that the German government shall be in a position to supply on this subject.

In the reply on the six other points raised the most interesting questions dealt with concerns Germany's admission to the league of nations. The reply denies the German declaration that the terms of the treaty with regard to the league are contradictory.

It says the covenant of the league declares that members of the league shall take the necessary steps to assure and guarantee the maintenance of liberty of communication and commerce and also equal commercial treatment of all members.

"Germany, when admitted to the society," the reply says, "will share in the benefits of these stipulations with other countries. The obligations during the period of transition following peace it is necessary to take into account the special conditions which are laid down on page 42 of the memorandum. The obligations imposed on Germany are therefore shown to have the character of reparations measures and their maintenance for five years, far from being incompatible with the principle of equitable treatment, have the object to assure the application of that principle."

Germany's new cabinet changed.

BERLIN, June 23.—Germany's new cabinet was announced today as follows:

Gustav Adolf Bauer, chancellor. Hermann Mueller, minister of foreign affairs.

Dr. Eduard David, minister of the interior.

Mathias Erzberger, minister of finance and vice chancellor.

Herr Wissel, minister of economics.

Herr Schuler, minister of labor.

Herr Meyer, minister of the treasury.

Johann Gieseler, minister of posts and telegraphs.

Dr. Bell, minister of communication and minister of colonies.

Gustav Noske, minister of defense.

Herr Schmidt, food controller.

All advice from Weimar today indicated that the German government would formally announce acceptance of the peace terms before expiration of the time limit tomorrow.

ABORIGINES HAS LEAGUE OF NATIONS

PORTLAND, Ore., June 23.—Is the League of Nations really so very new, or did the many Indian tribes on the western coast of our country, back in the early eighteenth century, live in security and peace under practically the same principles as expounded in the Wilsonian ideal?

The inquiry is prompted and brought to light here in the suit of the Nez Perce Indians, fighting for their rights to this in the waters of the Snake river, which state control seeks to force them out—the state against the Indian; the Indian appealing to the Mighty Power, the government, his league, for protection.

Their treaty is but one of many. It was originally made in 1855, on June 11, between the chiefs and Isaac Stevens, governor and superintendent of Indian affairs for territorial Washington, and Joel Palmer, superintendent of Indian affairs for territorial Oregon.

It aimed to prevent war. No tribe was to war against another except in self defense, and then an appeal was to be made to the officials above even before this action was resorted to. Failure so to do meant loss of annuities, land rights, and provided strict indemnities.

The valley of the Wenatchee went to the United States in 1855. The valley of the Grand Ronde river, from the ridge of the Blue mountains to the mouth of the Willamette, was set apart for the tribes to share alike in hunting and fishing.

Pierce-Arrow

When power is translated into control the benefit of ample and unimpeded power is realized. The new Pierce-Arrow walks on air. It accelerates quicker. It drops from 60 miles an hour in traffic and back again to the open level without shifting a gear. The Pierce-Arrow Dual Valve Engine is an achievement as remarkable as it is efficient.

SHE SUFFERED FOR 28 YEARS

Oakland Woman Says Tanlac Is Grandest Medicine in World

"It seems almost too good to be true that I am at last free from my awful suffering," said Mrs. Anna Woodcock, residing at 121 East Eighth street, Oakland, in relating her experience with Tanlac.

"For twenty-eight years," she continued, "I suffered with rheumatism in my shoulders and hands and many a night the pain was so severe that I had to get up and walk the floor. Besides the awful pain my hands would often get so numb that my thumb would drop off. While I was trying to get relief I would stick my fingers into my nose until they bled before I noticed it. My fingers and hands were in such a bad state that one of the family had to button my clothes for me. I had been able to get a full night's sleep only once in twenty-eight years. I always woke up between 1 and 4 o'clock with that awful rheumatic pain. I also suffered with gas and my stomach and bowels were in a constant state of distress."

"I have tried every good medicine different kinds of medicine during those twenty-eight years but have gotten more and more of Tanlac than all the rest put together. I sleep well every night because my rheumatic pain is gone and my stomach never gives me any more trouble. I eat just anything I want. So now I consider myself a well woman and I feel like years have been added to my life. To me Tanlac is the grandest medicine in the world and words cannot express the gratitude I really feel for what it has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Tanlac Drug Company, 2000 Broadway.

BABE IN AUTO GIVEN DUCKING

NEWS OF THE STATE

USUAL 'WRECK CORNER' THRILLS

SAN JOSE, June 23.—An automobile occupied by eight people and driven by Dennis J. Crowley of 247 Twenty-fourth street, San Francisco, plunged backward into the creek at Alum Rock park yesterday when Crowley sought to turn around by backing his machine on an incline covered with slippery grass. Mrs. and Mrs. J. McDonald and their 11-month-old babe were thrown into the water and the babe narrowly escaped drowning, but it was stated that their injuries were not serious.

As the car started for the creek people cutting their lunches on the grass scrambled for safety. Two young men in the machine escaped the plunge by leaping nimbly into the air and grasping the overhanging boughs of a willow tree.

USUAL SUNDAY THRILLS AT WRECKERS' CORNER

Dr. J. C. Hollis of Pleasanton was slightly injured when his machine was capsized by collision with a car driven by O. H. Boyce, 116 Post street, San Francisco, at the corner of Thirtieth and Santa Clara streets, where a gallery of San Jose people usually wait on Sundays to "watch the wrecks." Three or four crashes occur at this corner every Sunday and the "near-accidents" avoided by dexterous handling of the wheel also give the crowd a thrill. Police Officer Wolford investigated the accident. Hollis declared that he had been at the corner, but was arrested on a charge of driving a machine without a number plate.

F. W. Clamette Jr., 1941 Clay street, San Francisco, son of the late F. W. Clamette, proprietor of the Grizzlies and rector of Trinity church in San Francisco, was arrested here on a charge of speeding. Traffic Officer 12, W. Wolford, made the arrest, declaring that Clamette was driving at a dizzying rate of speed within the city limits and that he was only able to overtake the man with difficulty.

CHAUFFEUR IS ### ARRESTED IN

GEM ROBBERY

Morris Halpern, the chauffeur who drove David Zamore, Sacramento jeweler, to Oakland on June 1, when their machine was held up and Zamore robbed of diamonds valued at $50,000, was arrested in San Francisco and is on his way to Oakland, charged with conspiracy to rob the jeweler.

Halpern's arrest follows consultation with the Oakland police and Contra Costa county authorities. Zamore told the police that the chauffeur knew of the diamonds he carried before the trip started and was the holder of the hold-up, which occurred in Contra Costa county, he found that Halpern had not been tied as he had. He said that when the hold-up men appeared on the road the chauffeur stopped as if expecting them.

On the theory that the conspiracy, if one existed, started when the tip started from Oakland, the Oakland police asked Halpern to be arrested and try the case in Oakland.

BOYS FIND DYNAMITE CACHE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—While two of her eldest children attempted to shield her and the other four ran in fear, Mrs. Margaret Crowley was shot three times by her husband, Peter Crowley, who turned the gun on himself, causing his death six hours later at the Mission Emergency Hospital.

Mrs. Crowley is at the San Francisco hospital and is said to have a chance for recovery. She is 42 years old and mother of eight children. She was in the kitchen of her home at 2118 Irving street when her husband suddenly appeared and opened fire on her.

At the hospital surgeons who attended her removed a bullet from her hip and two from her stomach. When she regained consciousness Mrs. Crowley told the story to Assistant District Attorney Joseph McShane and Detective Nolan.

She said that her husband had been drinking heavily for several months and had threatened to kill her. She filed suit for divorce June 13 and he disappeared the next day. She had not seen him until he appeared and started to shoot at her.

Neighbors told the police that Crowley had often threatened his wife and children. After the shooting, William, a 13-year-old son, hid in a heavy closet at Crowley's, hitting him in the jaw and knocking him down, he said. It was then that Crowley went into the bedroom and shot himself.

Hope Springs Anew in "Wets" Signing of Peace Will Help

"Cheers!" The word of joy is passing today through the ranks of the "Wets," the saloon, cafe and hotel men, and their patrons share the jubilation. Everybody's happy because the Germans are going to sign the peace treaty.

"Peace! The beautiful dove! Let the olive branch reign!" For the news, evidently well authenticated, has reached Oakland that the dove will bear in its beak a branch of the olive tree, and that this will occur before July 1. And everyone knows from the olive from that branch taste best. At the bottom of a cocktail.

CLUM DISAPPEARED. Gloomy forebodings which persisted among liquor dealers here until the last few days finally have given way to optimism. They declare that today, through the mediation of President Wilson, peace will be declared. This order automatically will annul the war-time prohibition act.

As the President has made it plain that he desires the act nullified, except as it applies to "hard" liquors, those who are closely following the situation think that he will overlook this exception in order to give the wine and beer men time to adjust their business before the constitutional amendment becomes effective next January.

HOME SEARCH BILL LOST. Further news arrived here today from Washington. A measure providing for indiscriminate search of private homes for intoxicating liquors was voted down by the House Judiciary committee. Those who had begun to murmur "A man's house is his castle" and had worked themselves into a state of indignation, were calmed by these tidings. However, the provision is still in the prohibition enforcement measure.

Further search on a warrant issued by an authorized court. They demand that the search be on affidavits of "two credible persons." Wets also won a point in eliminating the minimum fine of $500 and proposed a minimum sentence of thirty days. The maximum stays at $1000 and one year.

FRICITION ARISES OVER LAKE PLAN

Friction between Mayor Davis and three members of the School Board has arisen, it developed today, through opposition to Mayor Davis's Lake Merritt development plan, favored by the majority of the board, by a minority of three.

W. A. Knowles, S. W. Lore and J. J. McElroy of the school advisory board, have, according to the mayor, come out in opposition to his plan. It has been decided by the board that the school board will not support the plan, which was invited to work with the advisory board, says that he will not work with these members, as there is no sympathy between them, and that will be the end of the matter.

The entire matter was gone into by the school advisory committee, composed of representatives of improvement clubs, and was endorsed by this body some weeks ago. To-day Mayor Davis says that he has received opposition by the minority he named. He says that he does not expect it to interfere with his plan, however.

McCloud Water Inspection Ends

The Eastbay Water Commission has returned from its trip to the McCloud river to inspect the McCloud as a possible source of supply for Alameda municipal use. The commission went to Balders, about five miles above the confluence of the McCloud and the Pitt rivers, and according to City Manager Hughes of Alameda, the quality and quantity of water which flows in the McCloud commended itself to the commission. "It is as pure water as is furnished by any stream in California," said Hughes, and it comes from the flank of Mt. Shasta, being fed by giant springs supplied by the melting snow on the mountain. In its upper reaches the McCloud flows over volcanic rock and the water has a strikingly clear blue color.

$4.70 TAX RATE IS PREDICTION OF EDWARDS

Oakland's tax rate will not be over $2.70, or in other words, the city and county tax rate will not be over $4.70, according to the estimate made today by Commissioner W. H. Edwards, after preliminary inspection today of department budget.

"We will keep the city tax rate as near two dollars as possible," Edwards said. "It is certain, however, that it will exceed that; a dollar has depreciated in buying value just 35 cents in the past year, the people have voted a $155,000 increase in the expenses of the first department through the two-penny system, and there is a loss of $240,000 revenue from saloon licenses that must be considered in the new budget. I should say that the least we can hope for would be $2.25, with about the same for the county, or $4.50 for the two rates; perhaps Oakland's rate will go higher, but we are trying to keep it down. I can say positively the rate will not go over $2.70. I believe it will be less."

Edwards says that last year's tax rate of $1.81 is impossible. He says that the two dollar rate would go less than last year's rate, but the rate, and that there are many heavy demands for increases and service to be considered.

"The taxpayer can rest assured of this. That for every dollar spent in taxes there will be value received," he said. "We are going to trim to the bone—but the rate must be heavy, just the same."

The budget will not be completed for at least three weeks," said Edwards, although the rate may be known unofficially before that time.

The contribution today was for $241.18, and it brought the total "conscience" money from this source received by Chambers to $694.99.

Woman Seeks Death With Her Children

PORTLAND, Me., June 22.—Kneeling at the bedside of her three children, her hands clasped to her breast in an attitude of prayer, Mrs. Barbara Thompson, 38, wife of Edward J. Thompson, a public accountant, tried to die with her little ones today. Gas was flowing freely from the nostrils of the mother and children were unconscious when neighbors broke into the room and removed them to the Maine general hospital. "I had my reasons for wanting to die," was all that Mrs. Thompson would say.

MISFORTUNE HITS TWICE IN HOME OF BERKELEYAN

BERKELEY, June 23.—Misfortune never comes singly. So Morris Anderson, colored Pullman porter, discovered today, of a case of Kentucky whiskey Edgar this morning after pleading guilty to having opened in his possession at his home, 1250 Ashby avenue.

The fine was promptly paid, only to find Anderson back in police station within a half hour. "I've been robbed," he cried, tears in his eyes. "And I can't get any more."

The loss which brought Anderson to the verge of tears was the theft of a case of Kentucky whiskey valued at $40. Also stolen during his absence in police court was a diamond stickpin, value $10, and ivory cigarette holder costing $2. Anderson doesn't care about the diamond.

Writes about FOLKS AND THINGS

What is the world like to the mothers and all the daughters? This last week I have had at least a dozen letters—no, there were sixteen, to be exact—every one of them telling me that they simply cannot live at home one day longer because their mothers insist on trying to marry them off to somebody or anybody, no matter who, just so long as they are married.

They are all girls between 18 and 24. All of them intelligent and apparently good, honest, sensible, modest girls who are ashamed to be hawked about to the highest bidder like so many horses or cattle. Almost every one of them belonged to a well-to-do family, that is the queer thing about it. It wasn't money that was the matter.

Three out of the sixteen of these girls say that they intend to commit suicide if there is no other way out of their misery.

One writes: "I have a lovely home, a good mother and a kind father, but my mother shames me so I wish I were dead. She dresses me up and makes me around and introduces me to every man she can find, and then she begins to tell him what a good girl I am, and what a fine wife I would make of me. If that doesn't work she hints to him that my father is well-to-do and that some day I'll have a nice bit of money of my own."

No matter what I say to her, she keeps right on, and she will discuss me and my chances, as she calls them, right before my face, with her friends and my relatives. I have begged and implored her not to do this, but she doesn't seem even to hear me. I have made up my mind if she does not stop to run away from home and hide myself somewhere, I would rather scrub floors and live on almost nothing a day than be tormented like this.

Another writes that she's growing to hate her mother because of just such cruel and shameless persecution. I can hardly believe my eyes when I read such letters. They look to me like pages out of some queer old, almost obsolete book. Who are these mothers and where do they come from to treat their daughters like this?

They might as well dress them in Turkish trousers or hoop skirts and

TRIBUNE'S DAILY ALMANAC

JUNE TWENTY-THIRD. First openwork covenant openly arrived at, out in the open under a tree, came into being this day, 1682, when Penn signed up the Indians. As proof of the effectiveness of treaties may one add that also on this date, sixty-one years later, the Iroquois Indians put their mark on a scrap of paper and promised to be good.

LOVE NOTES OF A DIVORCEE. My Dear Wife: I wonder if I could borrow our wedding ring for a few days? Not an actress. Last night, who insists that I make love like an amateur. I want to show her your picture and the ring as proof of the fact that I landed the world's most beautiful woman, even though I did lose her later.

Fondly, YOUR HUSBAND. FIRST, SECOND AND THIRD PRIZE. Dear Almanac: Might one call the gentleman who's suspended have failed him a victim of misplaced confidence? BO EUNELL.

BACON, NOT SHAKESPEARE, WROTE THIS. When brutal Brutus, ugly gezer, stuck snickersne and knits and sickle. Deep in the hark of one J. Caesar. And plunged the Roman world in pickle.

Reporters say J. C. did mutter, "Go to, you brutal friend and traitor." And ere he laid him down, did utter, "Revenge this is, both sweet and sticky."

PURE SILK AND A YARD WIDE. A gentleman who deceives himself as "nice, refined, of fair looks and circumstances and pure morals," who insists that he is "tail and alone," advertises in the classified columns that he will marry maiden lady of loving and silk disposition.

SHOULD HAVE BEEN CONVICTED OF CARELESSNESS. A hairpin found in an automobile convinced the owner of carelessness. It happened in Los Angeles. Where else would anybody steal a hairpin?

And then out to parade the streets and be laughed at from one end of town to the other as to talk about them and to them in any such way. Mothers don't marry their daughters off these days.

Men don't like girls whose mothers try to marry them off. Any man worth while wants to do his own choosing. And the very way to keep a girl from being married is to let her see and to let her friends see that you're hoping it won't be long till there is a wedding in the house.

I thought all those old-fashioned women were dead and buried forty years ago. I believed that the woman who thought marriage was the "be all and end all" of existence was as out of date as a dodo, and as impossible to meet in a day's walk as a llama from Tibet on Broadway, New York, or in the forests of Michigan or the wheat fields of Minnesota.

Can't these women see that marriage isn't the only thing in life for girls nowadays? Can't they understand that the modern girl has a mind of her own and a will of her own and a heart of her own, and that she intends to dispose of these properties as she thinks best, not as somebody else thinks best for her?

Mistake? Well, what if she does make a mistake? It's her mistake, not yours; it's her life, not yours; her happiness, not yours, that is at stake. When will people learn to mind their own business and keep their hands off other people's affairs?

Matchmakers? Why, they're criminals, every one of them!

REAL STRENGTH. There are days when skies are sunny there are days when skies are gray.

There are times when joy and laughter seem to lead us on our way. Then the clouds begin to gather, and the doubts and fears arise. And the tears of grief and sorrow dim the happiest of eyes.

Oh, it's then you need your courage and it's then you must depend on your faith in God above you to sustain you to the end.

You can live your days of sunshine all unaided and alone. You can share with men the pleasures and the treasures that you own.

You can whistle cheery snatches of some gay and lilting song When the sun is high above you and there's nothing much that's wrong.

But when darkness settles round you and when death is at the door Man has not the strength to give you that your soul is crying for.

When the world is at its brightest life's an easy thing to live. From the store of mortal gladness we can take and we can give. But I notice when our burdens seem too much for us to bear

Then we seek Divine assistance by the avenue of the prayer. And we calmly face our trials and we suffer every test. If the voice of faith shall tell us that whatever is, is best

GARY'S BEDTIME STORY

"Do you like strawberry shortcake, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Nurse "Purpy Wuzzy" the muskrat lady housekeeper of the bunny rabbit gentleman, one morning.

"I am very fond of strawberry shortcake," answered Mr. Longears. "In fact, I could eat a shoe right now. Please bring it in, Nurse Jane."

"Oh, I haven't any now," laughed the muskrat lady. "I was going to say that if you wanted some, and would go off to the woods in your auto and bring me back some strawberries, I'll make the cake."

"I'll do it," cried Uncle Wiggily. "I was very lucky in finding blackberries, red raspberries, and with the help of Johnnie and Billie Bushytail, I found the huckleberries. Now I'll try to find some strawberries. I'll look for them!"

No sooner said than done. Sprinkling a little pepper on the bologna sausage he tried to get a good hold of the turnip steering wheel. Uncle Wiggily started off. Over the fields and through the woods he rode, looking for all sides for some strawberries so Nurse Jane could make a shortcake.

"And I hope she doesn't make it so short that there will be none left for breakfast," Uncle Wiggily thought to himself.

But, look as he did, there seemed to be no strawberries growing in the woods, and the rabbit gentleman was feeling quite badly when, all of a sudden, he saw a little ladybug flying along.

"Dear lady bug," spoke Uncle Wiggily, with a low and polite bow of his tall hat. "Could you tell me where the strawberries grow?"

"Yes," answered the red-spotted bug, "you will find them just where you get out of the woods, and on to a field, there you will see many strawberries growing. They belong to Uncle Butter, the goat gentleman, and I heard that they were just ripe for picking now. In fact, many of the animal children are helping Uncle Butter pick the strawberries. You may get some there."

"Oh, I'm sure I will, thank you very much," said Uncle Wiggily to the lady bug. "Uncle Butter, the goat gentleman, is a friend of mine. He'll give me some strawberries," he added.

Then Uncle Wiggily started off in his auto once more as the lady bug flew away. Just as the rabbit gentleman was coming to the end of the woods and the field, he saw a tree where the strawberries grew. Something happened. And what happened was that the goat gentleman, Uncle Butter, was so busy picking the strawberries that he didn't have time to pick up the shoes and all, and for dessert, I'll take some soup off your ears."

"Are you sure you have the catch me?" bravely cried the bunny. "Then he sprinkled a lot of pepper on his bologna sausage auto tires, and away he went as fast as the wind. But the Boozup ran along after him, almost as fast, chasing Uncle Wiggily. "Oh, if I can get to the strawberry field I may be safe," thought the bunny. He steered his auto that way, and just as the lady bug had said, many of the animal children were in the field helping pick Uncle Butter's berries.

"Oh, Uncle Butter," cried the bunny as he rode into the strawberry patch, with the Boozup chasing after him, though now some distance behind. "What shall I do? Where shall I jump out of my machine and hop up to that shed?" said the goat gentleman. "The shed is a pile of strawberries on the floor ready to be put into boxes. You hide down under the red strawberries, cover yourself up with them, and leave just the tip of your nose sticking out so you may breathe."

"I'll do it," cried Uncle Wiggily and he had hardly hidden under a pile of berries before the Boozup came to the shed.

"Where's Uncle Wiggily?" cried the bad Boozup, as he popped into the shed. "I saw him come in here, but I don't see him now. All I see is a pile of strawberries. Where's Uncle Wiggily?"

"I don't see him myself," spoke Uncle Butter, sly like and unpretentious. "What shall I do? Where shall I jump out of my machine and hop up to that shed?" said the goat gentleman. "The shed is a pile of strawberries on the floor ready to be put into boxes. You hide down under the red strawberries, cover yourself up with them, and leave just the tip of your nose sticking out so you may breathe."

"Where's Uncle Wiggily?" cried the bad Boozup, as he popped into the shed. "I saw him come in here, but I don't see him now. All I see is a pile of strawberries. Where's Uncle Wiggily?"

"I don't see him myself," spoke Uncle Butter, sly like and unpretentious. "What shall I do? Where shall I jump out of my machine and hop up to that shed?" said the goat gentleman. "The shed is a pile of strawberries on the floor ready to be put into boxes. You hide down under the red strawberries, cover yourself up with them, and leave just the tip of your nose sticking out so you may breathe."

"I'll do it," cried Uncle Wiggily and he had hardly hidden under a pile of berries before the Boozup came to the shed.

Taft-Marwedel Wedding to Be Middle of July

One of the most important weddings of the summer, although the ceremony is to be performed with the utmost simplicity owing to a recent bereavement in the family, is that of Miss Dorothy Taft and George Marwedel of this city. Both Miss Dorothy Taft and her sister, Miss Clara M. Taft, have been ardent workers, the latter now giving over her time entirely to the local Defenders Club. As yet it is not determined whether the ceremony will be read at the family home in Harrison street or at church, and the date will be about the middle of July. Following a short honeymoon Marwedel and his bride are to make their home near that of the Max Tafts on Montecito avenue.

On the eve of their departure for Yosemite valley Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Preston of Van Buren street entertained with a birthday party in honor of Miss Roy Wilford last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Wilford accompanied their host and hostess to the valley. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Porter, Mr. and Mrs. William Hargrave and Miss Dorothy Brown. The motorists will be away for a month.

ZELDA FISHER ARTIST AND WRITER ARRIVES IN OAKLAND

Spends Day at the Claremont Country Club Golf Links.

Although a writer, I feel that I am at a loss to find words adequate to express the feelings that have held me spellbound since my arrival in your beautiful city. Why, you people here do not realize what a wonderful world you have. The nature, the beautiful bay, the exquisite climate, magnificent motor drives, my oh, my I am surely glad I come here to make my work of art and writing. The surroundings are wonderfully inspiring.

MY FIRST DAY
My first day in your city was spent in a motor trip to your country club. I wonder if it is necessary to tell you what a lovely spot it is. The country is so lovely. Why, it is simply grand out here. I wish I could have more space to tell you how all these things go to make up a wonderful world.

SUBJECT TODAY:
BETTER HATS FOR MEN.
One must expect results from "specialists," as Ballard & Anderson are specialists, but must expect not just hats, but only stands for better hats. Why, it is simply grand out here. I wish I could have more space to tell you how all these things go to make up a wonderful world.

Are Men Really Old at Fifty, and Women at Forty?

Is the age of discretion a venerable old age? Mr. Forty will resent the suggestion, with bitter offense, and Miss Twenty will claim that she is already discreet, and that the age at which she will deserve veneration is at least a quarter of a century away.

The play, "Years of Discretion," at the Fulton Playhouse this week, indicates the age of discretion as 40 for the woman and 52 for the man, and at that age Paul Harvey as Christopher Dallas and Nana Bryant as Mrs. Howard, put on their old faces and make a comedy of the situation. The play is a comedy of the situation, and the age of discretion is 40 for the woman and 52 for the man.

SERG. YORK SCORED FOR NOT NABbing KAISER

PITTSBURG, June 23.—How Sergeant Alvin C. York, the greatest hero in the A. E. F., was "scored" by other men in his division when he brought in his 132 captive Germans, which he had taken single-handed, was told here by two men who were in York's Tennessean and his prisoners ran into the kitchen police first.

"Say, Sarge, ain't you afraid them Huns will get away?" was the first question asked at York by the heeklers.
"Nope, reckon not," was the reply.
"How come? They're a posel of vessels there. Might run off an' leave you."
"They did try to do that an' fourteen of them got killed or they'd be more."
"You ketch'd 'em all yourself, I suppose?" put in an incredulous crowd.
"Yep," came back York.

BURGLARS AND POLICE BATTLE IN CLAREMONT

The explosion of three high-calibre
revolvers aroused the fashionable Claremont Country Club district to terror as two burglars and a police officer engaged in a battle at Broadway terrace and Edith streets shortly after midnight this morning.

A run of shots were fired in a chase that ended for the blocks.
The officer lost the man, but believes he hit one of them. Seven police officers were on the shooting scene
a few minutes later. They could find no trace of the escaped burglars.

The men had attempted to rob the home of W. E. Bullock, 6114 Ocean View drive. Bullock interrupted them as they were cleaning up the silver plate. As Bullock came down stairs from his bedroom, he saw the men. He attempted to block their exit. The burglars went down into the cellar and eluded Bullock
through a side window.

A large quantity of loot was found in the rooms, wrapped in sheets and tablecloths. At the top of the stairs
a pair of Bullock's shoes had been dropped by the marauders. A watch was missing.

Running from the Bullock house,
the men were seen by Mrs. W. E.
Scott, 3 West View drive. She promptly notified the police. Each of the men had a blue-silver revolver in his hand, said Mrs. Scott, and she became suspicious as they fled in great haste.

The attempted burglary happened
at midnight, according to Bullock's report. The burglars evidently were intent upon making a good haul, for they lingered in the Claremont district. At 3 a. m. Officer Cherry saw the pair. At a distance of about 100 yards he called for them to stop.

The men turned quickly and one fired at the officer. Cherry returned the shot and the race ensued for five blocks, with the thugs and police officer exchanging shots the entire distance.

In the midst of the shooting, one of the men cried out: "Oh, wait, wait!" Cherry believes he hit one of the men when the latter called to his companion.

The chase continued for another block and the men escaped in a grove of trees.

"Intoxicated" Man Some Fast Sprinter

Breaking away from Policeman Charles Jensen, while the latter was telephoning for a patrol wagon, the "drunk" that the officer didn't take to jail last night proved to be not so drunk, after all. Showing a clean pair of heels, he disappeared with incredible speed, despite the fact that the policeman fired three shots after him.

Jensen picked up the prisoner at Fifty-ninth and Adeline streets. Releasing him for a moment, he telephoned for the police wagon, and turned to find the man running.
Drawing his revolver, he fired into the air. The effect was little stepping on an accelerator. The "drunk" fairly flew.

"I guess he was not as drunk as he looked," the policeman reported today.

Dr. Dodge's Recovery Considered Doubtful

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Dr.
Washington Dodge, former banker and assessor of San Francisco, who shot himself in the head Saturday night at his home, is still alive today,
although his recovery is doubtful.

According to his attorney, Gavin McNab, Dr. Dodge's act was brought on by a nervous breakdown caused by brooding over a lawsuit which he thought attacked his honor for the first time. The suit was brought by Tilden Tognazzini and Charles F.
Lege, vice-presidents of the Anglo-California Trust Company, who declared they bought Folsom Wireless Company stocks on misrepresentation of Dr. Dodge.

The Jingles in The Headlines

By Horve Westgate
A twister hits a score of towns,
up Minnesota way, and Fergus Falls has been destroyed, the staff reporters say; and as the winter swept along, it leveled barn and shed, and late reports
now coming in say hundreds
may be dead.

The Huns will sign for peace,
by heck, upon the dotted line,
and now they'll promptly go to work, and cease to kick and whine; and soon they'll plow
the fertile soil, and stop their Hunish chases, and get right down to old brass tacks, and make their "limber" cheese.

The strike may soon be over is the rumor that we hear, and five once more we'll telephone and order beans and beer; we'll say
"Hello" to Central, and greet her as of yore, each time we want some garlic from the corner grocery store.

DENTISTS GATHER FOR CONVENTION

Two hundred dentists from all parts of the state, including over a score from Oakland, assembled this morning at the University of California Dental College in San Francisco for the opening session of the California State Dental association's forty-sixth annual convention.

The first three days of the conference will be devoted to classes and clinics, the formal opening of the convention being scheduled for Thursday morning. At that time it is expected that at least 350 more members will be present. The classes will continue Thursday and Friday,
with election of officers Friday night.

Extensive arrangements have been made for the feature banquet for members and their wives to be held at the Palace hotel Thursday morning. A novel entertainment has been provided and there will be several addresses by officers of the association and noted legislators.

Saturday morning the members will be given an opportunity to see the five visiting dental experts at work—Drs. Morton H. and James C.
Mortonson of Milwaukee, Drs. F.
Ewing Roach and Rupert E. Hall of Chicago and Dr. A. L. LeGros of Detroit. In the afternoon, following a luncheon at the hotel, the members of new officers will take place, the practitioners will formally close the conference with golf at the municipal links.

The keynote of discussion at this year's convention will be the closer association between the dental and medical fraternities—brought about by close association during the war.
In the medical corps, both professions discovered that working together would eventually bring to both a better understanding and an accompanying prosperity.

Rats Have Time at Oaklander's Expense

If there are any rats at the residence of R. E. Saville, a shipfitter, at 2050 Broadway, they must have chuckled with glee last night. The rats' would-be assassin experienced horrible pains.

Saville is a glutton for maple syrup. He took a slice of bread and smeared something from a small plate, which he got from a semi-darkened cupboard. The fluid wasn't maple syrup, it was rat poison.

Promptly Saville rushed to the Receiving Hospital where Dr. Richards used the stomach pump and treated
the patient for arsenic poisoning.
Saville was able to walk home soon after.

EDWARDS BACK AT WORK
Commissioner of Finance W. H.
Edwards returned today from his vacation spent in Los Angeles, San Diego and Yosemite. He took charge of the task of fixing the city's budget and tax rate today.

COURT FREES SUSPECTS IN W. W. CASES

James McHugo, confessed secretary of the Oakland I. W. W. headquarters, and all other alleged I. W.
W. followers, who are charged with violations of the new syndicalism
act were released from the city prison today. McHugo was liberated on $2000 bail. He was held to answer in superior court. McHugo is the first man to be sent to the higher court for alleged violation of the syndicalism act.

Police Judge George Samuels today announced he would release the remainder of the alleged I. W. W.
members on their own recognizance.
The majority of the cases are set for preliminary hearing December 2
in Police Judge Samuels' court.

Those who will appear on this date
are: Ernest Diaz, Segundo Esperio and Peter Petr. H. H. Treanor and Joseph B. Nisaneur, who are out on $20,000 bail, will also appear.

Louis Cavillo and Harry Rockwell, also charged with breaking the syndicalism law, will appear for their preliminary hearing on June 25. The December 2 date was fixed because of crowded conditions on the court calendar.

The preliminary hearing of Axel Nelson, a superior court judge, was not completed and was continued until June 25.

Many Trophies Won by Oakland Ad Men

Tomorrow's luncheon of the Advertising Club of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce will be an "experience meeting."

The Oakland ad men have come back loaded down with cups they won in various contests of wits and with all sorts of compliments for their "pep." The Portland Journal
said of them:

"The most conspicuous delegation came from Oakland. Oakland won nearly enough of the trophy cups to stock a jewelry store, including the grand sweepstakes prize, offered by Seattle."

Among the speakers will be George Cummings, elected secretary-treasurer of the Pacific coast organization;
George A. Hughes, Arthur Hargrave
and others.

$1,859,961 in Miller Taxes Due to State

An inheritance tax of $1,859,961.35
is due to the state from the heirs of Henry Miller, who left an estate consisting of a vast acreage of land in California. This fact is revealed in the report filed in the Superior Court
in San Francisco by State Inheritance Tax Appraiser, Richard F.
Morgan.

Miller owned 119,781 1/4 shares of the 120,000 shares of stock issued to Miller & Lay. The total value of the property is estimated by Morgan at $41,334,693.37. Against this amount he lists liabilities of $9,411, 250.75. Miller bequeathed $850,000
to his wife.

Morgan reports that $31,260,641.57
of the estate is subject to inheritance tax. His report lists the amount due from each of Miller's heirs.

Belgian Rulers to Visit U. S. in Fall

BRUSSELS, June 23 (French Wireless Service).—Before President Wilson left Belgium it was announced that King Albert and Queen Elizabeth accepted his invitation to visit the United States. The Belgian rulers probably will go to the United States in September.

Daylight Saving Repeal is Favored

and Senate conferees today approved
the rider on the agricultural appropriations bill providing for repeal of the daylight saving law next October 26. Adoption of the conference agreement is regarded as certain.

Pioneer Mariner Who Saved Homes Claimed by Death

Captain Caspar Titchworth,
pioneer mariner of San Francisco bay, whose name is revered by many old-timers who say they owe to him the fact that they are still happily married, is dead at the age of 75. He passed away yesterday at his home.

It was as the owner and master of the steam tug Annie,
more than forty years ago,
that Captain Titchworth proved the life-saver for threatened wrecks of happy homes. His tug left the Washington street wharf, San Francisco, at 2:30 each morning
with newspapers for Oakland,
and many a late-faring husband, having missed the last ferry, availed himself of the Annie in order to reach home
that night.

Captain Titchworth was born in Michigan. He was a member of the Masters and Pilots' Association, Lincoln
Post Number 1 of the Grand Army and of the Masons. He leaves a son, Captain Charles C. Titchworth, master of the ocean-going tug Hercules, and a daughter, Mrs. Laura Brown, of Oakland. Funeral services will be tomorrow at 11 o'clock from the Masonic Temple on Van Ness avenue, in San Francisco. Burial will be at Cypress Lawn.

POISON VICTIM WILL GO FREE

The Berkeley police today notified the receiving hospital that they have released Mrs. Hazel Vallejo King from the charge of passing a fraudulent check. An officer went to the Oakland central hospital last Saturday, where she was a patient, to place her under arrest, at which time she swallowed fifteen grains
of bichloride of mercury in a suicidal
attempt to escape service of the warrant. The police told the hospital that if she recovers they will ask her to confess the substitution of the money claimed to have been received by her on account of the check, and that in the meantime she can be left in the care of her friends to be placed in a private hospital or taken home,
as determined upon.

Early this afternoon no friends
had made any arrangement and the receiving hospital is faced with the necessity of sending the woman to hospital, as it is in conflict with the rules to keep her there for treatment after the emergency period is over.

Since early Saturday afternoon a private nurse has been in charge of the case, working without any assurance of being paid. But she left today at noon.

The receiving hospital staff are of the opinion that the attempt at suicide will eventually prove fatal,
although no change in the condition of the patient has been noticed so far.

It is believed the poison destroyed the interior of the stomach
an fatal sufficient quantities of it was absorbed to result in death.

Although it is believed that the 15-month-old baby, William Selzer King, be kept away, the baby was taken to her bedside Sunday, and she then expressed a desire to live.

Mrs. King said she took the poison to escape another arrest on a charge of passing a check without money in the bank. She was a patient at the Oakland Central Hospital when the police came to arrest her. She is charged with passing a check for $100
to a friend, indicating that she had contemplated suicide.

In fact, it is said by friends, she made a desperate effort to take her own life and that of her baby last Sunday after returning home from Judge Quinn's court, where she was arrested on a check charge on which she is now awaiting trial.

Friends fought with her all day,
it is said, and only the fact that she became exhausted and fell asleep
they claim, prevented her carrying out the threat while the mood was upon her.

Greeters Invited to Visit Oakland

Local hotel men have extended an invitation to the 300 delegates who are attending the convention of the National Greeters at Portland, Ore., this week to spend July 1 in this city on their return trip. Arrangements are being made by W. C.
Jurgens, manager of the Hotel Oakland, to give the delegates a luncheon
on the day.

W. W. Madison, assistant manager of the hotel, is chairman of the entertainment committee in charge of the arrangements for the luncheon.
Assisting him is Louis Aber, manager of the California apartments,
who will provide automobiles to take the guests on a trip over the Skyline boulevard and to the University of California and other points of interest in the Eastbay cities.

France-Serbia Food Relief Work Resumed

State headquarters for the newly-organized California Committee for Relief in Serbia and France reopened today at 425 Mills building, San Francisco. The purpose of the committee is to provide food for the children of Northern France and Serbia in response to an appeal from Herbert Hoover, head of the American Relief Administration. The officers of the committee are: Dr. Roy Lyman Wilbur, chairman; Warren Gregory, vice-chairman; Mrs. William H. Crocker, treasurer, and Mrs.
Vernon L. Kellogg, secretary. Mrs.
Frederick G. Sanborn, Mrs. A. L. M.
Leland and Mrs. Wilhelmy Rodman
complete the executive board.

'LOVER BUG' TO PAY $500 TO 'BUGGIE BUG'

Gertrude Marie Hoffman, according to her legal name, but "Buggie Bug" and "Lover Woman," according to the armory epistles that figured in the long court sessions over her romantic troubles, is $500 richer
today as the result of her adventures
in ardent vocabulary and cardinal palpitations. She was awarded $500
by Judge Moreno, after having sued Frank W. Schultz, hotel man of Los Angeles, alleging breach of promise. His letters were the bulk of the evidence.

"Go, but I want to see you and love you and kiss you!" read one of the "Lover Woman" letters that were read in court.

Here's another bit: "I had been planning on seeing you this week
dear little sweetheart, and holding you in my arms again and feeling your arms about my neck in one of those good old bear hugs you know
so much about and those thrilling,
heart-pounding kisses."

"At the time you wrote these old you intend to marry me?" Attorney Percy Hammond asked during the trial.

"Well, I appreciated her company
very much," said the defendant.
"And I thought if she proved to be the right kind of girl I might ask her to marry me."

Miss Hoffman says she was led to expect wedding bells and that she considered herself jilted. Schultz says he wasn't responsible for her preparations to wed. He bought her a diamond ring, he says, but not as an engagement ring. Her suit, he said, was a surprise to him.

Most of the letters that figured in the trial were written to Miss Hoffman while she was visiting in Oakland and about the bay, she says. The lady says he signed himself "Winkie" or "Lover Bug" usually.

After the jury had considered the evidence and read the letters several times they decided on the $500 award. Miss Hoffman had asked for $50,000.

Two Alleged Auto Thieves Arrested

After touring the country for nearly a year in stolen automobiles, Henry Hoffman and Laif Landis, seventeen-year-old boys, are in custody in Oakland, following their capture by Detective Kyle at the foot of Broadway.

According to the police the boys have confessed making their way across the country from Chicago with stolen cars, stealing a new car whenever their funds were low, selling it with the machine, then riding away with the machine. They stole a car at Chicago, another at New York, one at Boston, and one at Salt Lake, according to the police.

They were waiting for the San Francisco ferry when arrested.

Several Injured in Passenger Train Crash

AURORA, Neb., June 23.—Several people were injured, three seriously, when the fast Seattle-St. Louis passenger train on the Burlington was wrecked on a short distance east of here. The three most seriously hurt are:

Alfred H. Swan and his wife, returning from M. C. A. workers in China, on their way to St. Louis.

Mrs. W. W. Fegwell, Gilette, Wyo.
The train, which was behind time,
was running at 52 miles an hour, when it struck a defective switch, four sleepers,
the dining car and chair car going into the ditch.

Friendly Salutation Meets With Disaster

Disaster met a San Franciscan attempt to get acquainted with two Oakland young women, while their escort was present.

"How-do-do," quoth W. F. Moore, of San Francisco, coming up, his face wreathed in smiles. The trio, at Tenth and Franklin streets, were surprised.

"What's that," hissed the escort,
Charles J. Scanlon of 4120 Howe street. He parleyed no further, but struck Moore on the nose.

Moore was treated at the Receiving Hospital.

This is "Lover Woman" and "Buggie Bug," otherwise Gertrude Marie Hoffman, who got $500 for lost love.

BURGLARS MAKE SEVERAL HAULS

Burglars, entering residences in various parts of Oakland, last night made hauls approximating several hundred dollars in value, according to police reports.

Chris Helkren, a Portland, Ore., visitor, is minus his baggage today
because a thief stole a baggage check from his room at the St. John rooming house, 415 Twelfth street. When Helkren discovered the check and a purse containing $50 missing, he rushed to the baggage office. He was too late. Inspector B. A. Wallman investigated the case.

EXPECTS VISIT FROM HUSBAND; HE DROPS DEAD

SANTA CLARA, June 23.—Instead of a visit from the head of the family, Mrs. Walter J. Mc-Clellan and family of this vicinity received a telegram announcing McClellan's sudden death at Woodland, Cal., from heart failure.

McClellan came here sixteen years ago and had made a large number of friends in this vicinity.
Miss Ella Brown has written her family here that she will travel extensively in the British Isles before returning home. Miss Brown entered the service of the Red Cross several months ago and has been doing service in France.

cisco and Leonard Hicks of Chicago.

STRIKE IS ENDED

Following an agreement reached at a conference between representatives of the Laundry Workers' Union
and officials of the Crystal Laundry, at 2307 Chestnut street, the 105 inside employees who went out on strike Friday morning returned to work this morning.

Hamrick found several dollars missing from his pants pockets.

COUNTY BOARD DENIES HUNTER SECRET TALK

Superintendent of Schools Fred M.
Hunter of the Oakland schools appeared before the supervisors today asking for a private conference on the school budget, which is to be adopted at the meeting of the school board this evening. He declined to make a public statement of what he wanted to represent to the board, and certain members refused to confer with him privately. As a consequence, there was no conference, although the superintendent talked privately
for a time with Chairman Mullins.

"If the superintendent of schools has anything to say to the board I am in favor of him saying it out-loud," commented Supervisor Redmond C. Staats. "I am opposed to this star chamber business in relation to public affairs. Furthermore,
I am opposed to dealing with the superintendent of schools individually in regard to budget matters. If the school board wants an agreement with the board of supervisors,
let them come before us as board to board. I do not believe that any agreement we might enter into with Superintendent Hunter would be binding upon the school board, and I am opposed to taking up time talking."

The meeting had finished its routine affairs when the superintendent appeared. He was called upon to make his statement and asked for it to be private. When a private conference was objected to Mullins left
the chair and the meeting broke up.
As Supervisor Staats started away Superintendent Hunter intercepted him, but Staats refused a conversation, pleading private business. Mullins said afterwards that there was nothing to report.

A number of communications were received by the board from teachers
and parents' clubs endorsing the plea of the teachers for more salary, and a petition was presented by the school janitors for an increase in their pay of 20 per cent. Chairman Mullins asked them to submit a schedule of their present salaries and told them that the supervisors had always allowed them the amount recommended by the board of education.

Knox Resolution is Upheld by Hays

NEW YORK, June 23.—Will H.
Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, was in the city last night from Washington. Asked about the Knox resolution for a separate consideration of the league of nations covenant and the peace treaty, he said: "Of course I am for the Knox resolution. The American people will not stand for this single 'sign here' attitude. That is the way they make mortgages. Our people are simply insisting that the client is entitled to consider the contents of his own contract and just what it will entail. The citizenship of America is the client.
That is involved in the Knox resolution."

PICKING OF THIRD MAN FOR DEMPSEY-WILLARD GO IS CAUSING SOME TROUBLE

Fighters Were to Decide on Party Who Would Be in the Ring With Them.

By FRANK. G. MENKE,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 23.—A deadlock exists at the present writing over the selection of a referee for the Jess Willard-Jack Dempsey fight on July 4. And until the "third man" is named big betting on the clash will be in status quo. Tex Rickard's dream that passing the job along to the National Boxing Commission was the solution of the problem now seems to have developed into a nightmare of worry. It is all because the noble athletes so far have been utterly unable to agree on the same man.

A list of approximately a dozen names was submitted to Rickard and his fighters by the commission, which intimated at the time its willingness to O. K. the acceptance of any man of that group.

Willard is said to favor some of the commission's nominees; Dempsey does likewise. But up to the present moment both have failed to place the stamp of approval on any one individual. But now it looks as if the battling over the "third man" question,

Fast and Close Contests Feature Sunday Play at Berkeley.

The playing of the double matches features today's program of the California State Tennis club championship tennis being played at the Berkeley tennis club courts. Mayme McDonald, winner of the women's singles play yesterday, is to have Wallace as her partner in the match with J. Gunzberger and Marjorie ...

The ... may break out into an open clash so that all the world may learn the whys and wherefores.

Major Andrew J. Drexel Biddle, president of the National Boxing Commission, planned last week to arrive here today. He hoped that prior to his advent the warriors would select the man for the job. But from the most authoritative source—a member of the commission—comes this information:

"No settlement whatsoever has been reached up to now over the referee matter and the parties concerned show no indication of reaching an agreement. Some are rather nasty about it."

PASS BACK TO RICKARD

The official articles provided that the fighters were to meet in the contest two weeks before the date of the contest. Failing to do so, the task was that to be passed along to Rickard—a job that he was to do. He had an idea all about them about tackling. Apparently in the women's singles, and W. J. Whelan, defeated R. O. Simon in the men's singles. The winners fought against Marjorie Thorne and Ed Weiss. The racquet swingers were quite busy on the Berkeley courts. One day, singles and doubles were being played. The feature of the men's singles was the victory of Ed Smith in two sets by Vivlie Johnston. Helen Baker and Mayme McNeil defeated Ed Weiss in two sets in the women's singles, while Marjorie Wade had to go the three sets to defeat Ed Weiss. Bob and Howard Kinsey did some classy playing to defeat Graven and Ed Weiss in doubles.

Four matches were billed in the women's doubles, but only two were played, and they were settled in two sets. The fourth match billed was the victory of Ed Smith and C. Hosmer defeated to Florence Sutton, and Mrs. Henry Kinsey. Ed Smith's play and today's schedule follow:

MEN'S SINGLES.
W. Johnston defeated Stanley Smith.

WOMEN'S SINGLES.
The warriors, in preliminary discussions of the women's singles, the folks most concerned that they were not any agreeing mound and might squabble in the matter.

Then it was the turn of Ed Smith and conceived the thought of letting the National Boxing Commission do the work.

On June 10 he wrote asking the organization if it would accept the task. On June 11, the National Boxing Commission that time sent along to Rickard and the fighters a list of names embracing the names of the fighters in the Americas. The fighters were to agree on one man from that group.

On June 12, the National Boxing Commission that list arrived, yet the fighters haven't come to any agreement. W. A. Gavin, a member of the commission, came here to Berkeley to make a study of the fight, but in vain. It seems that as soon as Willard approves a man, he will say they are not ready and Willard returns the compliment by doing vice versa. Just whose names will be in the final list is a well kept secret. But if these of Ed Smith of Chicago, Bill Brown of New York, Billy Rocco of New York, and Ed Smith of California and Walter C. Kelly of Buff-

The Neptune Beach water polo team defeated the Stockton team in a game at the Neptune tank by taking a sensational finish. Eddie Miller shot the ball through the Neptune tank as the whistle blew for the finish. The score was 7 to 6. Miller is the hero of the first water polo match of the season.

This game was a close one throughout. The players showed plenty of ducking for players on each side. Eric Hebbe had to be put out of the game because he was injured. He was too rough, almost drowning Frank Norris of the Neptune Beach team. The following is the list of the fun-

Danger Signs of Bad Blood

Avoid Suffering by Heeding These Warnings.

Pimples, scaly, itching skin, rashes and burning sensations denote an unfalling certainty a debilitated, weakened and impure state of the blood. The trouble is in your blood, and no matter how you were infected, you must treat it through the blood. It is a blood disease. You must use S. S. S., the standard blood tonic, if you expect certain relief. For purifying the system nothing is equal to it. The secretion of S. S. S. is to cleanse the blood. It soaks through the system direct to the seat of the trouble—acting as an antidote to neutralize the blood poisons. It revitalizes the red blood corpuscles, increases the flow so that the blood can properly perform its physical work. The dull, sluggish feeling leaves you—the complexion clears up. Even longstanding cases respond promptly. But you must take S. S. S. Drugs and substitutes won't do. Get S. S. S. from your druggist. ## Willard's Weak Spot Remains To Be Located

Many Think Dempsey Will Be the Fellow to Do So.

By H. C. HAMILTON.
United Press Staff Correspondent.

TOLEDO, O., June 23.—A lot of fans are beginning to ask themselves if Jack Dempsey's punches will carry sufficient weight to knock out Jess Willard.

The little doubt that the iron maulers will be able to reach the back of the present heavyweight champion when they get going. He will slam right and left with precision into the big fellow. But the longer the fight fans watch the progress of the boxers, the louder comes the query: "Can Jack's punch do it, or is Jess really what he claims to be—a man who is too big and strong to be knocked out?"

The writer believes the man does not live who cannot be rocked to sleep with a punch in the right place, but Jess' right place has never been located yet. Even though he never did face the grins of a puncher like the demon he will have in the ring with him next month.

There is a lot of superstitious mystery of the bunk variety regarding the condition of Willard.

People watching Willard work are inclined to become puzzled by his slowness, contrasted with the apparent ease with which he handled his sparring partners. He has fast men work with him and therefore his slowness is accentuated by the way some of them are able to punch him.

It seems evident that Dempsey will hit him more frequently than do his sparring partners, for Dempsey is a much more accurate fighter.

DEMPSEY STEPS EAST.
Willard's workout yesterday was very slow. He did no execution himself and his sparring partners were unable to do any, for he contented himself with using his long arms to off.

Dempsey's workout yesterday was directly in contrast. He ripped and tore into Bill Tate and James Kidd. He gave the latter a fine pasting and went after Tate's hammer and long. Tate broke down and Dempsey smashed away at Tate's abdomen rights and uppercuts, on one occasion staggering Dempsey as he dashed in with his head down. Dempsey smashed away at Tate's abdomen and had no trouble in using his fast foot and crossed on Tate's chin.

Jack Heinen has finally called it a day. He departed last night for his home in Chicago. The knockout punch he took the other day, on his last appearance in the ring with Willard, has left him with a twisted, the muscles in his neck severely and he can hardly turn his head. Terry Kellar also has broken up his things.

Dempsey was a little more than Kellar wanted to tackle, as a means of livelihood Dempsey is not shy of sparring partners, as Jack Malone and Billy Mike arrived Sunday and Dempsey was ready to go. He hit today, the first promoter's license ever issued by the Army, Navy and Coast Guard.

Control. Willard, at the same time, received number one license as a boxer in Chicago.

TELEGRAPH STRIKE STILL IN DEADLOCK

COAL GIVEN TELEGRAPHERS

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—Employees of the Western Union Telegraph Company here will be paid hereafter at the rate of wages fixed at a conference between company executives and employees at Omaha last July, according to announcement here today by Allen Hixson, vice-president of the Western Union Employees Association.

Hixson said the award would be retroactive and that back pay would be forthcoming for the difference between the existing rate and the agreed scale originally agreed upon.

It was explained that the conference agreed on a 15 per cent increase, but before it became effective the government took over the lines and awarded a 15 per cent increase. The company has now been given the company to direct such matters, it has notified the men that it will allow a further increase of 3 per cent, making the total of 18 per cent. The company will allow back pay to make the total increase of 15 per cent effective from last August 1.

L. J. Marshall, in charge of the telegraphers' strike, said Denver, where the strike was first called, said it would give the strikers more strength, as the Postal Telegraph company would have to meet the rate. He said the company announced it "only to prevent a further walkout."

TELEGRAPH STRIKE STILL IN DEADLOCK

With officials of the Postal and of the Western Union Telegraph companies asserting that their service would be maintained, the strike of operators, and with officials of the striking operators asserting that they purpose remaining out until their demands are met, the strike expressed today any hope of an immediate settlement. Company officials say they have on the way to the bay district officials to fill the places of those on strike.

P. C. O'Connor, local president of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, said today that plans for continuing the strike along more aggressive lines. "Reports reaching the union headquarters are extremely gratifying," said O'Connor, "and the statements of the local telegraph officials that communication is not seriously hampered as the result of the strike."

GO OUT WITH ME; DAVIE TO
HIS APPOINTEES

Incoming members of municipal boards, to be appointed before the end of the week by Mayor John L. Davie, will be named under the promise to resign four years from now, if their positions are desired by whoever succeeds Mayor Davie in office.

It was announced today by the mayor that he will not be a candidate for mayor again, and that he will not appoint members of municipal boards for six years, and thus hamper the policies of his successor.

"The board members to be appointed this week on park, library, civil service and recreation boards are to be named with this understanding," he said. "They are to give me their words to resign, at the end of four years, if the next mayor desires it. When I came into office I found the city clogged up with boards. I am going to clean up the old administration, through a bungle in the city charter. My agreement with whoever I appoint will stop this, and make the city hall safe for the next mayor. Under the present circumstances I have been in office four years and there are anti-Davie members running the various municipal boards."

STANLEY APPOINTED.
Davie's first appointment to be announced was that of Lynde Stanley to the recreation board in the place of Miss Ethel Moore. He will name a woman, he says, to the vacant place on the library board, but has not yet chosen her. He says he has not decided yet on the civil service board member to succeed Roscoe Jones, but will do so before the end of the week.

With the appointment of Jones' successor the civil service board will be controlled by a faction friendly to Davie, Ralph Fisher being the only member left over from the Mott administration.

Man and Wife Face
Charges of Fraud

Ellis Nickel and his wife, Mary Nickel, are in police custody today, having been brought from Los Angeles to answer to a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The warrant, sworn to by Mrs. Juanita Thomas of Berkeley, alleged that the pair obtained $140 worth of furniture from her by false representations and moved to Los Angeles, where they were arrested and brought back by Inspector J. T. Flynn.

That she was robbed of a $1000 check on a street car was reported today to the police by Mrs. U. A. Mortimer of 533 Twenty-seventh street. She says the check was removed from a purse lying on her lap while she was looking out of a window.

VOTERS URGED TO SUPPORT BONDS

Voters of California will decide July 1 whether the state will spend $40,000,000 for good roads. Many influences are being brought to bear to the purpose that the bonds carry to the election and Governor Stephens made public today another statement urging that the voters support the project. His statement says:

"I desire again to urge upon the voters of California the wisdom of the $40,000,000 bond project for good roads and the importance of going to the polls and giving it the endorsement of their ballots.

"Increase in land values where our state highways already have been built has given us indisputable evidence of immediate returns from our previous investments.

"We have a vast area of mountainous country in which farming and fruit growing are just beginning, and highways that will solve the problem of transportation will unlock a great wealth for our state.

He was fifty years old and is survived by a widow and two children. He had conducted a general merchandise store in Oakland for sixteen years. According to the dead man's friends he had saved $3000 to lift a mortgage on his store, and this was the money he had lost. He left a note explaining his action.

DIETZ FIGHTS
U.S. CHARGE OF DRAFT DODGING

William Henry "Lonestar" Dietz today is getting his full share of that publicity he craves.

Before a jury in the Federal Court in Spokane the famous football coach and Carlisle Indian gridiron star, who was the mentor for Mare Island's champion eleven during the war, is fighting to clear himself from a charge of evading the draft by fraudulent registration as a non-citizen Indian.

The government declares that Dietz is a "paleface." It has brought to Spokane witnesses who knew Dietz's family in Wisconsin. The woman said to be his mother may take the stand.

Famed for his courage on the football field, Dietz is alleged to have posed as an Indian because he thought it good publicity.

GRAVES PUBLICITY.
Dietz, on the other hand, says that it is his liking for publicity which has brought him into his present dilemma, as he failed to protest when a newspaper several years ago published a "story" saying that he possessed no Indian blood.

Dietz attracted much attention while at Mare Island. In addition to turning out an eleven that was the terror of all opponents, he got into the limelight by personal exploits.

At Berkeley, in February of this year, he played Good Samaritan to a bad check artist by endorsing the man's "phony" paper. Dietz was exonerated of any criminal intent, however.

After last football season he went south and entered the moving picture world, where he was when arrested.

Dietz says he is a Sioux Indian, and as such entitled to exemption under the draft laws.

FLASHY DRESSER.
Depositions have been obtained from two professed cousins of "Lonestar," Clarence H. Dietz and Leslie J. Dietz of Madison, Wis., sons of J. Dietz of Madison, now in prison at Waupun penitentiary.

Before coming to Mare Island Dietz was coach for the Washington Agricultural College team at Pullman in Washington. Dietz was famous for two things, his ability to turn out a winning football team and his clothes. He always appeared resplendent, in fancy waistcoats and flashy suits, which he often changed several times a day.

Two-Week-Old Baby
Found Dead in Lake

Investigation is under way by the police following the finding of the body of a two-week-old baby boy in Lake Merritt. The body, unclothed and with no marks of identification, was found by Wallace Shaw, a ten-year-old boy, of 1102 East Twenty-second street, while Shaw was rowing on the lake. It had been in the water only a few hours. According to the police, indications are that the baby was alive when thrown into the lake. The body, found near the foot of Eighteenth street, was removed to the morgue.

SEEK BARBERSHOP THIEF
That he was robbed while being shaved is the complaint to the police of Claud Tackel of 778 Twentieth street. He went to a barbershop to be shaved, he says, and while in the chair claims that some one picked his pockets, stealing $15. The money was in his vest, hanging on the wall, during tonsorial operations, he says. An investigation is being made.

Phone Girls Believed Kidnapped
Sisters Are Sought by the Police

Oakland and the bay district is today being scourged in a search to locate Josephine and Rose Allensworth, sisters and telephone strikers, who were seized into an automobile by an unidentified man and woman Saturday night and have not been seen since.

The circumstances of their strange disappearance lead the police to believe they have been kidnapped. Miss Josephine is 15 and a brunette. Her sister, Rose, is 17 years old and copper-haired.

They were waiting for a street car when the auto came along, according to girl friend witnesses, at 8 o'clock Saturday night. A short conversation ensued and the girls entered the machine.

The girls had been noticeable for their strike activities. They had been in the strike crowds and had attended the meetings regularly.

Miss Josephine wore a turban hat, a tailored blue serge suit and black pumps. The sister, Rose, was also dressed in blue, a black hat and black pumps.

The police have been urged to do their utmost by the girls' mother, Mrs. O. S. Allensworth.

Despite earlier belief that his injuries were not especially serious, W. E. Murphy, a New York soldier discharged in San Francisco two days ago, is in a dying condition this morning at the Alameda Sanatorium from injuries sustained while diving at an Alameda beach resort yesterday.

Murphy dove into the tank, striking the body of another swimmer. He was taken from the water in a half-strangled condition and treated by Dr. H. A. Miller, being later removed to the sanatorium. He has an injury to his neck, though the neck or cord does not appear to be broken.

Murphy, as far as known, has no relatives on the coast. His mother lives at 515 West 134th street, New York.
